The Wyoming Center for Legal Aid is an entity of the Wyoming Supreme Court and is governed by a Board of Commissioners. The Center came into existence on April 19, 2011, and is authorized and funded by the Wyoming Civil Legal Services Act, W.S. 5-2-121 et. seq. The Act charges the Center with developing a statewide program for improving access to justice and providing civil legal services to Wyoming's low-income citizens. The Center is Wyoming's first state-sponsored civil legal aid program, and it is funded by revenue that is generated through court-filing fees. The Wyoming Center for Legal Aid is dedicated to helping income-eligible Wyoming citizens connect with legal resources and find ways to address their legal needs.

The Commission provides the method for selection of the justices of the Wyoming Supreme Court, district court judges and circuit court judges. The Commission consists of seven members. The chairman is the Chief Justice of the Wyoming Supreme Court, or a justice of the Wyoming Supreme Court designated to act for the Chief Justice. In addition, there are three members of the Wyoming State Bar engaged in active practice and elected by the State Bar. Three electors of the state, not admitted to practice law, shall be appointed by the Governor. The terms are set and staggered in a manner prescribed by law. (Wyoming Constitution Article 5, Section 4, 1971) The Commission operates in conjunction with the Wyoming Supreme Court.

Upon the recommendation of the Wyoming Judicial Planning Commission, the Supreme Court signed an Order dated May 24, 2000, establishing the Board of Judicial Policy and Administration and thereby delegated its superintending authority as provided by Article 5, Section 2, of the Wyoming Constitution, to the Board. The Board consists of three judicial members of the Wyoming Supreme Court, with the Chief Justice acting as Chairman, three judicial members of the District Court, and three judicial members of the Circuit Court. The Board was established to promote the continued communication, cooperation, and efficient management of all levels of courts for the Wyoming judicial system. The Board operates in conjunction with the Wyoming Supreme Court.

According to W.S. 5-2-118, the Wyoming State Bar acts as an administrative agency of the Supreme Court to regulate the practice of law in Wyoming. In that capacity, the State Bar provides technical and clerical support to the Supreme Court and State Board of Law Examiners to evaluate license applications, accredit and certify mandatory continuing legal education and investigate public complaints about attorneys, including fee disputes. The Bar also maintains committees to improve the practice of law and the administration of justice.
