Statewide PACs file online at www.wycampaignfinance.gov

Filing Office: County Clerk

Who must file: A committee formed before or after an election is required to file a statement of receipts and expenditures after each election. In an odd-numbered (non-election) year, any PAC or candidate committee which has previously filed a statement of receipts and expenditures and has not filed a statement of termination is required to file an annual itemized statement of receipts and expenditures.

What must be filed & when: According to WS 22-25-106(b)(i), a committee shall file an itemized statement of receipts at least seven (7) days before the election current to any day from the eighth day up to the fourteenth day before the election. The committee shall file a statement of receipts and expenditures within ten (10) days after a primary, general or special election. A committee formed after an election to defray campaign expenses incurred during a previous election, and any ongoing committee, shall file an itemized statement of receipts and expenditures on December 31st of each odd-numbered year and shall continue to make the reports until the committee terminates.

Reporting requirements: The general rule is that a committee should note and keep track of all campaign contributions no matter how small. The law only requires you to itemize contributions (receipts) on this form totaling $25 or more. However, keep in mind that if you receive $10 from a contributor who then later gives you $20, you must report the total $30 contribution on this form.

Penalty for not reporting: A person found guilty of violating Wyoming campaign finance statutes is subject to criminal charges.
